HOPES ARE HIGH FOR SCOTT AND FAN FORCE UNITED AS THEY SET THEIR SIGHTS ON THE FREEDOM 100

Rookie Scott Anderson to make his oval race debut at IMS

Indianapolis, IN - Scott and Fan Force United will be back in black for the 2014 Freedom 100 at IMS this Friday, May 23rd, as rookie Scott Anderson makes his debut on the famed oval.

The return to the team's original paint scheme brings the season full circle. After the #24 Anderson Podiatry Centers; Laser Nail Therapy, Surgery, and Neuropathy car brought home a top five finish at the GP of Indianapolis, the team shipped the car off to be painted the original 2014 livery designed by Daniele Sanfillipo (@dansanfy13). This is the livery that was also voted on by the fans, in typical Fan Force style.

"Gone is the Chiquita banana and we are back to our original scheme. I am looking forward to the Freedom 100 this weekend, but first we have to look forward to qualifying tomorrow. The crew has worked hard on the setup in the shop and she looks like she's going to be quick. I can't wait to strap in! We should be in good shape to qualify near the front," said Scott.
